

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law regarding Telephone Privacy and especially challenge the Consumer Bankers Association petition regarding "established business relationships".